BUSINESS

Tucson's Green named head of AZBio

ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Tucson, Arizona | Published: 10.03.2009

The Arizona BioIndustry Association, or AzBio, named longtime Tucson biotechnology entrepreneur Robert S. Green as its president and CEO.

Green has formed and operated several biotechnology companies since moving to Tucson in 1989, most notably Integrated Biomolecule Corp., which sold its Oro Valley facility to Ventana Medical Systems/Roche Group in late 2008. Green has served on the boards of AZBio and the Bioindustry Organization of Southern Arizona, as well as Arizona's Bioscience Roadmap Steering Committee.

Green succeeds C. Robert Eaton, who is resigning under a mutual agreement with the AZBio board of directors, the group said in a news release.

AZBio is comprised of 175 member organizations in business, research and education, economic development, government and other professions involved in the biosciences.
